NMI Democrats Launch a Precincts Listening Tour

This week, the Democratic Party of the Northern Mariana Islands (DPNMI) launches a Precincts Listening Tour, a community-focused initiative designed to engage NMI residents in open, honest conversations about the issues that matter most to them.

When asked about the upcoming tour, DPNMI Chair Annie Pickelsimer said, “We believe your voice matters, and the listening tour gives people an opportunity to share their concerns, to ask questions, to advocate for themselves, and to let their voices be heard.”

The DPNMI values everyone’s input and believes in the power of grassroots organizing that empowers people at the local level to engage in active political change; therefore, the DPNMI invites community members to join them at their respective Precincts Listening Tour to share their concerns, questions, and priorities about the present and the future of the CNMI.

The first stop on the Precincts Listening Tour will be in Precinct 1. Join the DPNMI on Thursday, October 23, 2025, at the Saipan Southern High School cafeteria, from 5:30–7:00PM. Dates, times, and locations for precincts 2 and 3 are below, while the dates, times, and locations for precincts 4 through 7 will be announced soon.

- Wednesday, November 5, 2025, Precinct 3, 5:30–7:00PM, Carolinian Utt
- Thursday, November 13, 2025, Precinct 2, 5:30–7:00PM, Laly 4 Pavillion #8
